1. What is the topic of this passage?

2. What was the first step in making the pancakes?

For breakfast, I 166

The spelling J U L E, Julie got to gobble her own name.

They asked grandma arranged five pancakes on a plate.

Look at them. Grandma arranged five pancakes on a plate.

That is the same whatever way you in Julie's name. She did not have to make the U or the L

Grandma made a separate pancake for each letter.

pancake. the J was facing forwards.

poured a dollop of batter over it. When she dipped the frying pan, grandma designed a backwards J. Then she added, grandma used it to write backwards letters in a sizzling with letters banded into them. Taking a little better in a

The best part came next. Grandma created pancakes.

Dry ingredients.

Julie used a wooden spoon to combine the wet and with a whisk. Grandma poured in melted butter and milk.

Sorbon; sorbon went the other Next. Julie beat the eggs first they 169.

house. The next morning, they made pancakes.

One Friday night recently, Julie slept over at Grandmas.

The Saturday Morning Project