The Principal's Pen

by Dr. Mary D. Monsour

The holidays are behind us, and the snow-sparkled landscape unfolds before us as we bundle together to wait out the new season's hibernation. As I look back over the last month, I wonder why I worried so much about finding the perfect gift, cooking the juiciest meal, and ensuring that my house was cleaner than at any other time of the year. Did anyone really notice? For what reason did I put so much emphasis on these material things? What importance do they have on my family's perception of goodwill?

When I look at my own three children, I marvel at their life's paths and am proud that I had a small part in it. And yet I have to remind myself that their ideals were not borne from my shopping expertise; their morals have nothing to do with how well I cooked the Thanksgiving turkey. It was the gift of presence that made the difference in how they turned out. Time is such a gift and one that we deplete easily and carelessly. Too often, it is easier to crowd an already burgeoning schedule with one more outing, one more sport, one more task. It almost takes careful planning not to plan in excess.

As I set my New Year's goals, I am acutely aware of making time for family my first priority. What better gift can I give my children and my grandchildren than an ear for their problems, a heart for their joys, and a smile for their thanks? How better can I spread the true meaning of the holidays, goodwill, than by beginning with my own three children and husband?

The greatest gift one can receive is the gift of one's presence. The greatest gift one can give is time. They cost nothing, are non-returnable, and take no planning. The rewards are immeasurable!

Have a great New Year.

Notes from the President

by Lori Cuervo

Dear Parents,

We're almost half way through the school year. Time goes by so quickly. Many PTA programs have already been completed, and many more are yet to come. Because we are all so busy with work, family, and other activities, I often wonder if I've taken the time to thank the many people who have helped the PTA, and me in particular, throughout the year. Since I will likely not be able to do it personally, let me say "thank you" here.

- Thank you to the PTA Board for handling all the details involved in making our programs run so smoothly.
- Thank you to all the chairpeople who handle all of the little things that go into membership, dances, bulletin boards, spelling bees, newsletters, spiritwear, and all of the other school activities.
- Thank you to all of the parents who generously donate their time, food, and money to support PTA programs.
- Thank you to the teachers and school administrators who work with our children every day.
- And most importantly, thank you to my family for putting up with me.
- Lastly, I'd like to give one big "thank you" to all of the parents who have signed up to receive bulletins, notices, and newsletters via Silent gratitude isn't much use to anyone.

Those attending will learn dance, cheers, stunts and cheer technique, taught by the Peters Township High School Cheerleaders. There will be a performance for all the parents starting at 3:45 p.m. There will also be a 7th and 8th grade special clinic for those interested in trying out for the PTHS Cheerleading Squad. PTHS Cheer tryout is scheduled for May.

Walk ins are welcome the day of the clinic for $30.00. For more information, please call Jackie Ranalli at 724-348-4756.

SPELLING BEE 2007

Can You Spell That Please??

The 2007 Peters Township Spelling Bee was held Wednesday, January 10, 2007. Among the qualifying participants were 6th grade students from McMurray Elementary and 7th and 8th grade students from Peters Township Middle School. The fifty-two spellers gathered in the LGI at Peters Township Middle School to rise to the challenge of becoming one of the top two spellers in Peters Township.

The first and second place winners will represent Peters Township at the Washington County Spelling Bee to be held February 13, 2007 at the Washington and Jefferson College, Olin Fine Arts Center.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

email. The PTA has saved a significant amount of money by ending the printed newsletter program. This money is being spent on other items to support our students. In addition, the email program has saved our volunteers countless hours of phone calls to arrange PTA activities. If you know a parent who has not signed up for the email program, please invite them to do so. Share a copy of your newsletter with them, and show them what they are missing by not being on our email list. About half of the families in our school have signed up so far. Wouldn't it be great to be able to contact all families?
