SUPERINTENDENT’S COMMENTS

- Celebration of Excellence

EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMICS

Flag Day at Bower Hill - Bower Hill Second graders learned about our American Flag in June with a visit from “Betsy Ross” (who looked a lot like Mrs. Hanak!). They also shared their donation with the PT Fire Department from their classroom fundraisers throughout the year! Thank you to our Second Grade Team and to our PT Fire Department for all they do for our community!

Step Up Day for Bower Hill 3rd Grade - Bower Hill Third Graders celebrated “Step Up Day” as they got ready to move to McMurray Elementary next year. The students took part in fun games and activities to celebrate their days at Bower Hill and watched the McMurray Orientation video to learn more about their new school.

Camp BEAR at Pleasant Valley - First Grade at Pleasant Valley celebrated Camp BEAR (Be Excited About Reading) by making their own indoor “tents,” reading and trading stories about camping and doing different camp themed activities!

8th Grade Awards – Our 8th Grade students celebrated the end of their time at PTMS with the annual awards ceremony. Congratulations to the students above who earned special awards during the event. Best of luck to all of our 8th graders as they head to PTHS next year!

FBLA AWARDS FOR PTHS – Congratulations to our students from PTHS who earned top honors in the state at the 2021 FBLA State Leadership Conference & Competition. Students completed their competitive events online in late March/early April.

6th Place - Sports & Entertainment Management - Ryan Deegan, Brett Kroboth

6TH GRADE WAX MUSEUM - Sixth grade students at McMurray recently shared their research projects with their classmates – both remote and in person - with their "Wax Museum." The students selected and researched events or people in history and presented them to their classmates in full character. Their topics ranged from The Supreme Court to The Titanic!

Third Grade Celebrations - As part of our end of the year celebrations, Bower Hill held its annual parade for 3rd grade students as they said goodbye to the school.

Pleasant Valley joined the tradition with a parade as well, and included two staff members who were retiring as well.

PLEASANT VALLEY MINI MALL - Third grade at Pleasant Valley ended their recent Economics Unit with their Mini-Mall event. Although it may have looked a little different than in past years, everyone had lots of fun! Students took orders online for the products they created and shared their commercials via flipgrid!

HIGH SCHOOL MEDIA AWARD - High School junior Riana Kamath won the Best in Category the Robert Morris University's Digital Media Arts Consortium (DMAC) Awards for Newspaper Magazine/Yearbook Page Design. Her winning design was the center spread of the December News Magazine.

Fiesta Day at Bower Hill - First Grade at Bower Hill held their annual Fiesta Day today! Students made masks, painted their own Mexican snakes and "pottery" and even had a special chips and salsa snack break.

PTHS STUDENTS PRESENT INTERNATIONALLY: Six PTHS students recently participated and took first place in the annual Pittsburgh Data Jam competition and the students were invited to present to the Global PPG Digital Team during their Digital Town Hall meeting on June 17. The students above (Jackson Busche, Wehnan Lu, Maya Nagiub, Victor Yu, James Wang, and Sheng Weng) presented in person to several team members at PPG. The remaining 120 Global PPG Digital team members representing the United States and Europe watched the presentation live through TEAMS. The team was sponsored by Judy Alexander and mentored by PTHS graduate and current Pitt student, Anthony Robol.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY - Congratulations to Peters Township Eighth Grader Kaitlyn Strine who finished 7th in the nation in Junior Individual Exhibit at National Competition of the National History Day contest. She placed first in her initial group, to make the final round. Strine and the other PT students listed above were among the nearly 3,000 contestants who participated virtually for this event.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021 – On June 11th, we celebrated the graduation of the Class of 2021. It was a beautiful evening honoring this class who overall earned more than $5,900,000 in scholarships for their collegiate careers. Best wishes to all of our seniors!

EXCELLENCE IN THE ARTS

Senior Art Show – As the school year came to a close, senior art students at Peters Township High School help an Art Show to showcase the work they had done this year for friends and families.

Songs for a New World – PTHS held its first musical in the new High School Auditorium in May with Songs for a New World. This series of songs performed by our talented students was a great kickoff for the arts in the new facility.

EXCELLENCE IN ATHLETICS

NATIONAL LETTERS OF INTENT – Six High School students signed their National Letters of Intent this month to continue their athletic careers at the collegiate level. Please join us in congratulating the following students and their families:

Baseball:

Swimming:

EXCELLENCE IN CHARACTER

50 Year Grads – A special part of our Peters Township tradition is the participation of alumni who are celebrating their 50 year reunion in commencement. During graduation, we welcomed the Class of 1971 as special guests to our event. The next morning, members of the class donated a tree at the New High School as part of their reunion events.

PV Reading Bench - Throughout the school year, Mrs. Colombo's 3rd grade class has enjoyed some additional outdoor time in the grassy area between Pleasant Valley and the former High School. The class found the area a good place to run and have fun, and they also found a great shady tree where students like to hang out, read, and play games. What began as just a conversation in the classroom about having a great place to sit and relax suddenly became much more! Two classroom families reached out to Mrs. Colombo with an offer to build a bench and flower boxes to make the area even more appealing.

EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP

New Games for Recess at Pleasant Valley - When it's a great idea - you run with it! Bower Hill recently added painted games to their school playgrounds and PV followed suit! Many thanks to the PTA and all who helped make this happen for our kids!
