

College Application Quick Reference 2023-2024

The self-reported academic record (SRAR): this feature allows students to self-report their high school grades and other academic information.

Not all colleges and universities use the SRAR.

If a college/university requires you to submit the SRAR, the counseling office does NOT send initial transcripts.

If you are submitting the Common Application for Penn State and University of Pittsburgh, you must submit your application first. The schools will send you an email to complete your SRAR – CHECK YOUR SPAM/JUNK FOLDERS.

1. If you have already sent in your application, select the checkbox labeled I've already sent my application. If not, leave it unchecked.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Start by researching the number of recommendation(s) needed, if any, by the college or university. Keep in mind that some schools require letters from specific subject area teachers. For example, a math/science major may require one letter from a math and/or one from a science teacher.

Steps (Electronic):

1. If possible, request your letter in person from your teacher and/or counselor. Provide a paper copy resume. You MUST use Naviance Student to request letters of recommendation.
2. From Naviance Student, navigate to Colleges > Letters of Recommendation (under Apply to College).
3. Click on "Add Request". From the dropdown menu, find & select the name of the teacher who will be writing your letter. You can choose for them to send their letter to specific colleges or to all present & future colleges you will add.
4. A personal note may be added with additional information or instructions. Please indicate if you are submitting via Common Application.
5. Then, Click "Submit Request" to send the request to the teacher. It is a good idea to confirm with your teacher that they received the request through Naviance.
6. Continue to update your teachers and counselors throughout application season to remind them about sending their letters & to let them know if you've added additional colleges to "Colleges I'm Applying To" since your last conversation & would like for them to send their letter to these additional colleges.
