Little Pup played in some leaves. It was so much fun! He was so busy having fun, he forgot the dark night would come.

Then he looked around him, and his eyes opened wide. He found that there were lots of dark shapes under the light of the stars.
He wished he were at home under the table,
safe in his yard.

What could it be? The shape got bigger as it came closer.

Then Little Pup saw that it was his mother!

95

"You are not on your own in the night," said Mother Pup. "I was following you because you must never go out of the yard on your own."

After breakfast, Mai went to find Papa. "Papa," she said, "I'm looking for a fruit like a star. It must be soft and yellow, and shaped like the big star near the moon."

"Hmm," grunted Papa, "what about that starfish in the pool?"

Mai laughed. The starfish was beautiful, but it was not soft and yellow!

Mai watched Aunty cutting pineapple for lunch.
"Aunty," she said, "I'm looking for a fruit like a star. It should be soft and yellow, and shaped like the big star near the moon."

"This pineapple is soft and yellow, and sweet!"
said Aunty. "I can cut it into star shapes!"

The pineapple was delicious! Mai's hands were smothered in juice, but the pineapple was not truly shaped like a star.

Mai saw Grandfather sitting in his chair. "Grandfather," she said gently, "I'm looking for a star fruit, soft and yellow like the big star near the moon."
